From the President...

Welcome to WCR Lansing Chapter! Thank you for becoming a part of this wonderful organization. This year is filled with great opportunities to help you network and increase your business. I look forward to assisting you in exercising your potential as entrepreneurs and leaders in our industry.

Our chapter is growing and I am working with a great leadership team to provide good programs and education that will enhance your career. It is our goal to keep you desiring to be a part of this group because of all the fantastic benefits we offer. We have a fun and exciting year planned with you in mind. Please take time to review this website for updates and other information.

I hope to see you involved in the rewarding classes and events we have scheduled. Getting involved is so important and beneficial because you can make great connections.

Help us to grow leaps and bounds with your talent and time. You are the best and we desire the best for you! Looking forward to working with you!

Best wishes for a successful 2011!

Sincerely,
